Dear sirs

Please accept my objections to the following:

Why I'm objecting is that mr [REDACTED] has one static licence and up to THREE of his other bikes trading down there. Someone else down there named [REDACTED] trading down there. A coffee cart trading down there and my TWO tricycles trading there. That is, when I'm not being harassed and bullied. I'd also like to know why I was ignored and not consulted when [REDACTED] got her licence for the river (if at all she has one) when she pitches up and is static ALL DAY the coffee cart which has paid a fee based only on the size of her very small smart car and not the size of the pitch which includes a 3x3 meter gazebo and table and chairs. Are these all council cover ups?
