ANNEX 1 – MANDATORY CONDITIONS

The making and authorisation of alcohol sales

No supply of alcohol may be made under the premises licence—

- a) at a time when there is no designated premises supervisor in respect of the premises licence, or
- b) at a time when the designated premises supervisor does not hold a personal licence or his personal licence is suspended.

Every supply of alcohol under the premises licence must be made or authorised by a person who holds a personal licence.

Age verification policy

The premises licence holder or club premises certificate holder must ensure that an age verification policy is adopted in respect of the premises in relation to the sale or supply of alcohol.

The designated premises supervisor in relation to the premises licence must ensure that the supply of alcohol at the premises is carried on in accordance with the age verification policy.

The policy must require individuals who appear to the responsible person to be under 18 years of age (or such older age as may be specified in the policy) to produce on request, before being served alcohol, identification bearing their photograph, date of birth and either—

- (a) a holographic mark, or
- (b) an ultraviolet feature.

Permitted price of alcohol

1. A relevant person shall ensure that no alcohol is sold or supplied for consumption on or off the premises for a price which is less than the permitted price
2. For the purposes of the condition set out in paragraph 1—
 - a) “duty” is to be construed in accordance with the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979);
 - b) “permitted price” is the price found by applying the formula—

$$P=D+(D\times V)$$

where—

P is the permitted price,

D is the rate of duty chargeable in relation to the alcohol as if the duty were charged on the date of the sale or supply of the alcohol, and

V is the rate of value added tax chargeable in relation to the alcohol as if the value added tax were charged on the date of the sale or supply of the alcohol;

- c) “relevant person” means, in relation to premises in respect of which there is in force a premises licence—
 - (i) the holder of the premises licence,
 - (ii) the designated premises supervisor (if any) in respect of such a licence, or
 - (iii) the personal licence holder who makes or authorises a supply of alcohol under such a licence;
 - d) “relevant person” means, in relation to premises in respect of which there is in force a club premises certificate, any member or officer of the club present on the premises in a capacity which enables the member or officer to prevent the supply in question; and
 - e) “valued added tax” means value added tax charged in accordance with the Value Added Tax Act 1994.
3. Where the permitted price given by Paragraph (b) of paragraph 2 would (apart from this paragraph) not be a whole number of pennies, the price given by that sub-paragraph shall be taken to be the price actually given by that sub-paragraph rounded up to the nearest penny.
 - (1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies where the permitted price given by Paragraph (b) of paragraph 2 on a day (“the first day”) would be different from the permitted price on the next day (“the second day”) as a result of a change to the rate of duty or value added tax.
 - (2) The permitted price which would apply on the first day applies to sales or supplies of alcohol which take place before the expiry of the period of 14 days beginning on the second day.

ANNEX 2 – CONDITIONS CONSISTENT WITH THE OPERATING SCHEDULE

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e):

Full coverage CCTV is in place to cover the inside and outside of the premises

There are always two members of staff on the premises at all times

75% of all alcohol is kept behind the counter and low cost alco pops etc are kept next to the counter

Staff are fully trained in Challenge 25 and clear signs are in place throughout the shop

Signs are in place to ask customers to respect the local residents and leave the premises quietly

Minimum amount of money kept on site

b) The prevention of crime and disorder:

CCTV will be installed inside the premises.

There will always be two members of staff on duty at any one time.

Minimum amount of money stored on site.

Drunken customers will be refused sale and requested to leave.

I will work closely with local neighbourhood police.

The premise will become part of the "Watch Scheme".

Notice displayed on shop window informing people of sale of alcohol times.

24 hour CCTV is in operation at all times

A strict Challenge 25 is followed

All staff are fully trained to prevent any under age sales

Customers are reminded not to loiter around the shop once they have made their purchase and where required are told to move on

Someone who appears to be highly intoxicated is refused sale to prevent any potential crimes or nuisance being caused once they have left the shop

Work closely with local crime prevention schemes and keep them informed of any nuisance or disorder that may have happened within the shop

c) Public safety:

Any recordings of members of public buying alcohol for underage will be passed on to local Police.

All fixtures and fittings within the shop will be regularly checked and maintained to ensure Public Safety.

Accident book and a First Aid kit are kept on the premises

Daily checks are taken out in the shop to ensure there are no hazards to the public or staff

d) The prevention of public nuisance:

Notices will be displayed on the premise requesting patrons to leave quietly.

Loitering outside the premise will not be allowed.

The side entrance to the premise (Alley) will always be kept locked.

Signs are in place to remind customers that we are in a residential area and that noise should be kept to a minimum and there should be no loitering

Will keep local policing informed of any situations that may potentially lead to a nuisance to the public

e) The protection of children from harm:

All staff are trained to follow the "Challenge 25" rules.

Correct challenge 25 posters will be in place.

Training will be provided staff on types of approved ID.

A logbook will be kept on site at all times.

Adults who try to purchase alcohol and have small children with them and already seem intoxicated are refused sale

Challenge 25 is strictly followed with a refusal log kept up to date and stored behind the counter

Challenge 25 signs are in place

CCTV covering the outside of the shop is on a monitor next to the till and is always being monitored by staff so they are to be aware of any children attempting to get adults to purchase alcohol on their behalf.

Other operating conditions

Conditions attached by Police

1. The premises shall operate a Challenge 25 policy. Such policy shall be written down and kept on the premises. The policy shall be produced on demand to the police or an authorised person (as defined by Section 13 of the Licensing Act 2003) or an authorised Worcestershire Regulatory Services officer. Prominent, clear and legible signs (in not less than 32 font bold) shall be displayed at all entrances to the premises as well as at least one location, behind all serving counters, advertising the scheme operated.
2. Staff will be trained to ensure that all customers who appear to be under the age of 25 will be asked to produce identification. The only acceptable identification will be a passport, a photo driving licence, a card bearing the official PASS hologram or any other identification acceptable to the Police. Alcohol will only be sold to individuals who appear to be over 25 or who are able to produce appropriate identification proving that they are aged 18 or over. Staff records with regard to training shall be kept on the premises and produced to the Police and authorised Local Authority Licensing Officers on demand.
3. CCTV will be provided in the form of a recordable system capable of providing pictures of evidential quality in all lighting conditions, particularly facial recognition.
 - a) Cameras shall cover all ingress and egress points to the premises, fire exits and all areas where the sale / supply of alcohol take place.
 - b) Equipment must be maintained in good working order and record the correct time and date. Recordings must be kept for a period of 31 days and should be handed to Police upon reasonable request in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998.
 - c) The premises licence holder will ensure that the DPS or an appointed member of staff is capable of assisting the police by providing usable copies of CCTV footage expeditiously in accordance with reasonable requests made in compliance with the Data Protection Act 1998.
 - d) The CCTV system will be maintained in good working order and checked daily. In the event of any failure of the system, the failure will be remedied as soon as is reasonably possible.
