INFORMATION PACK AND APPLICATION FORM

Street Trading In Worcester

How Street Trading is Controlled in Worcester

Worcester City Council has adopted the provisions of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 so that it can effectively control street trading.

All streets within the City are designated as Licence Streets. It is unlawful to trade in any street, road, footway, highway or adjacent area to which the public have access without payment, without a licence. Trading without a licence may result in prosecution.

The City Council has the right to vary or revoke the licence at any time if the trader fails to comply with the conditions attached to the licence.

If you wish to trade outside the City of Worcester area you should contact the appropriate District Council for that area. Please note that different Councils may have different procedures and rules regarding street trading.

If you wish to trade within the City of Worcester, application should be made to the Licensing Section, Worcester City Council, Environmental Services, Guildhall, High Street, Worcester WR1 2EY (Telephone 01905 722213).

Exemptions to Street Trading

1. Trading as a pedlar with a valid Pedlar's certificate issued under the Pedlars Act 1871. (A pedlar is a person who travels and trades on foot and goes from town to town or from house to house carrying goods to sell.) A pedlar can not trade from a fixed spot. Pedlar's certificates are obtained from the Police. Further guidance on pedlars is available from the Council.
2. A roundsman, who is a person who delivers orders to the customer's door. This is a trader who calls by prior arrangement with the customer and sells at the customer's premises. Ice cream sellers or mobile food sellers are not deemed to be "roundsmen" and require a licence to trade in the street.
3. News vendors selling only newspapers and periodicals, unless the stall exceeds one metre in length or width, or two metres in height.
4. Trading from the forecourt of a petrol filling station.
5. Trading from a stall outside a shop as an extension of that business.

What is a Street Trader

A Street Trader is someone who:-

- Trades on any road, footways, highways, and other adjacent areas to which the public have access without payment. Traders must obtain land owners' permission when trading on private land.
- Sells or exposes or offers for sale any article, whether food or non-food, including a living thing, whether with or without a stall or vehicle.
- Trades from a fixed location.

Application Procedure

1. Complete the appropriate application form.
2. Attach to the application form the required documents, as listed on the application form, together with the appropriate fee (on initial application only) and submit the form via customer services at Orchard House, Farrier Street, Worcester.
3. Original documentation submitted in support of your application will be returned if requested.

Consideration and Determination of your Application

1. When received by the Licensing Section your application form will be checked and processed if correct. Incorrect or incomplete applications will be returned. Provided there are no queries arising from the application form, your application will be acknowledged in writing within 5 working days of receipt.
2. The complete application form will be copied for comment to various parties. Amongst them are the Police, Transportation Partnership Manager, Visit Worcester Manager and the Community Safety Officer.
3. Responses to the application must be made within 20 working days. If queries are raised at this stage then you will be contacted and given the opportunity to address them.
4. Having received all comments/recommendations and taking into account the Street Trading Policy Statement, the Licensing Section will then decide whether or not to grant your application. Where your application cannot be granted, you have the right to ask for it to be referred to the Licensing Committee for consideration and determination. You will be informed in writing of any decision.

- 5 If your application is refused after a hearing by the Committee you will be notified in writing of the reasons for refusal. You have the right to appeal to the Magistrates Courts in such circumstances.
- 6 If your application is refused the fee is refundable less an administration charge.

On renewal, any instalment payments are by agreement with the Council.

Fees are reviewed annually and are applicable from 1st April each year.

Fees payable for static traders who trade from a fixed pitch are:-

Single Unit up to 10 ft x 10 ft	£3320
Over 10ft x 10 Ft	£6166

The fee for a Mobile Trader is £91 per annum per vehicle.

A day licence costs £61 per day. Consecutive days (to a maximum of 4) cost an additional £17 per day.

Miscellaneous Information

A Licence can be issued for any period up to a maximum of 12 months but will expire on 31st March next, unless surrendered earlier.

Renewals will take place on receipt of a completed renewal application form and payment of the appropriate fee.

Licences are not transferable and cannot be contracted out.

The licence holder is entitled to a refund of part of the fee paid if the Licence is surrendered part way through the year.

Refunds may be made on a pro rata basis, subject to an administration charge of £25.

If the licence is surrendered or not renewed then any other person may apply to trade from the same site. Generally licences are issued on a first come first served basis. If there is more than one application for a particular site the matter will be decided by the licensing committee.

Responsibilities

A Licensee is responsible for ensuring that:-

- The licence conditions are complied with.
- All relevant certificates are produced to the Council with any application for a licence.
- The vehicle or stall is registered with the Council if selling food of any description.

The Council will not be held responsible for any acts or omissions arising from the grant of a licence.

Where trading is on private land, to which the public have access without restriction, permission to trade must be obtained from the owner/occupier as well as the Council.

Street Trading - Policy Statement

- Street trading is regarded as an acceptable activity in Worcester provided that it is located where it can make a positive contribution to add interest, vibrancy, and diversity to the city and does not give rise to problems associated with Crime and Disorder.
- The Council licenses street trading activities in Worcester and will ensure that traders operate in accordance with conditions attached to such licences.
- The Council will identify suitable locations for street trading in consultation with the Police, the City Centre Manager and the Head of Engineering and Transportation.
- Street Trading should enhance the shopping areas for the benefit of the pedestrians but also preserve space to prevent congestion in our streets.
- We aim to protect the needs of the disabled and the visually impaired. Street traders should not present unnecessary obstructions.
- We will ensure that the sale of goods does not create conflict with the trade of established shops.
- The Council will seek to assist promote new business and enterprise.
- The Crime and Disorder Act stresses the need to take positive action to combat crime and the fear of crime. Therefore, prior to granting any street trading licence the Council will pay particular attention to any potential crime and disorder arising directly or indirectly from the licence and will give significant weight to the views of the Police and Community Safety Officer.
- The Council may issue a licence for any period up to one year.
- Applications for a street trading licence will be considered and determined by the Director of Environmental Services.
- Where more than one trader applies for a licence to trade from an approved site, the application will be referred to the Licensing Committee.
